BSC 1093 Anatomy and Physiology I

INSTRUCTOR: Frances Duncan OFFICE: 1749
OFFICE PHONE: 484-1166 CELL PHONE: 516-3167
SECRETARY: (Ms. Ezell) 484-1168
DEPT. HEAD: Mr. Jim Brady: 484-1168
OFFICE HOURS: As posted or by appointment
e-Mail: fduncan@pjc.edu
Course Companion Website: www.pjc.edu, Click on Students and under Quick Links click on Course Companion Websites

COURSE: BSC 1093 Anatomy and Physiology I
Prerequisite: Biology (high school or equivalent) Corequisite: BSC 1093L
This course is an intensive study of human anatomy whith emphasis on normal physiology and disease states that result when homeostatic mechanisms are compromised. Topics covered include basic cellular function, tissue components of the body cellular metabolism, skeletal, muscular, and nervous systems.

Please see the Class Expectations and Guidelines Sheet for Attendance, Withdrawal, Make-up, Classroom Behavior and Additional Help Policies.

The last day to withdraw from class this term is July 24, 2007.

REQUIRED TEXT: Human Anatomy and Physiology, Marieb, 7th Ed.

BONUS CREDIT AND TEST TYPE:
Quizzes will be multiple choice and matching type questions, unannounced and worth 5 bonus points each. Each Test will be composed of 45 multiple choice and matching questions (2 points each—90 points) and short answer questions worth 10 points. The Final Exam will be comprehensive and will be composed of 100 multiple choice and matching questions. No test grades will be dropped. The Final Exam may be substituted for one test grade. Spelling counts. Graded materials must be submitted in pencil only.

GRADING SCALE AND EVALUATION METHODS:

540-600 points	A	Test 1	100 points
480-539 points	B	Test 2	100 points
420-479 points	C	Test 3	100 points
360-419 points	D	Test 4	100 points
359 and below	F	Test 5	100 points
		Final	100 points
		Total	600 points